

"AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research"

Who we are...

The Kirkwood-Webster Groves Branch of AAUW supports the full range of the AAUW mission through its monthly program meetings, special interest study groups, and public outreach events, by engaging in political action, collaborating with local organizations and educational institutions regarding AAUW topics, and by supporting area young women and girls directly. We are one of six branches in the St. Louis, MO, area that comprise the AAUW Metro Saint Louis Interbranch Council (IBC).

President's Message

The 2015-2016 AAUW year is coming to a close, and I would like to thank all the members who work so hard to make the Kirkwood-Webster Groves AAUW Branch a success. Many thanks to Gloria Campion for organizing the Stem Award. Gloria has worked with the schools to find the girls to receive the award and make the program a success. Many thanks to Phyllis Foster who helps with the Stem Award and has agreed to co-chair the Stem Award next year. Phyllis has collected and delivered the items to Kirkcare each month. She also helps with AAUW Funds sending out the donation letters and making the reservations for the Holiday dinner and awards banquet and represented the branch on Barb Lackritz Award Committee. Nancy Hutchins is another member I can always depend on to lend a helping hand. Nancy is finishing her term as Membership VP but will continue on the board as co-chair of the Stem Awards. This year Nancy served on the Barb Lackritz Award Committee and has agreed to co-chair the Committee next year. Nancy also helps with the book group and attends Interbranch meetings. Thank you to Barb Johnson who co-chairs AAUW Funds and the book group and serves as the branch By-laws chair. Thanks to Marsha Koch for taking over the newsletter and agreeing to Co-chair Membership VP. The newsletter is so important, and Marsha does a wonderful job. The KWG AAUW Branch owes much of our success to Carol McDonald who takes care of the Pecan Sales and agrees to be our Finance officer year after year. Carol helps write articles for the newsletter and helps keep me on track with Downtown Lunch and IBC meetings. Chris Nobbe has done a great job as Program VP; we have had wonderful, informative and fun programs. She and her husband Nicholas Kirschman come to the meetings early to help set up the projector and make sure the meetings run smoothly each month. Lynne Roney is another AAUW member who helps in so many ways. Lynne is the branch Secretary, our Webmaster and makes sure the meeting notices make it in the Kirkwood Webster Times. Lynne helps with programming and is always willing to help wherever she is needed. Thanks to Maurita Stueck who volunteered to do Public Policy this year. Thanks to Jeannie Webdell who rejoined the KWG Branch and agreed to be the IBC member at large and will be Membership Co-chair next year. She also had the branch board meeting at her newly renovated home. We are a small but mighty AAUW Branch thanks to all of these wonderful members who give their time and expertise. They make my job as KWG President easy because we all share the responsibility of running the branch and we work together as a team. I feel very blessed to be a part of this phenomenal group of women, and I look forward to working with them next year as we celebrate our 45th year of being an AAUW Branch.

Maurita Stueck: Woman of Distinction

Maurita Stueck, founding member of the Kirkwood-Webster Groves Branch, was honored April 30 as an AAUW Missouri Woman of Distinction, along with Mary Emily Kitterman of Kansas City and Pat Shores of Ballwin-Chesterfield. Joining right after college via a gift membership from her husband's aunt, Maurita helped invigorate the St. Louis Branch by forming a recent graduates group and then, as the suburbs grew, formed the Kirkwood-Webster Groves Branch 45 years ago. Maurita has volunteered for and been honored by many organizations including the Girl Scouts, St. Louis Symphony, St. Louis Zoo, Missouri Botanical Garden, Repertory Theatre, Webster Hills United Methodist Church, Washington University, Lindenwood University, Missouri S&T, St. Paul School of Theology, and Epworth Children and Family Services. She has been president of KWG Branch and chair of St. Louis Metro IBC. Congratulations, Maurita!

KWG Receives Awards at AAUW-MO Conference

Kirkwood-Webster Groves Branch received certificates for several achievements at the annual AAUW Missouri meeting in Jefferson City April 30. KWG ranks third among branches among branches in the state in per capita giving and seventh in total giving to the AAUW Fund. At $83.46 per capita we are above the MO branch average of $80.22. We were named a 9-Star Branch. Congratulations, Kirkwood-Webster Groves!

Missouri History Day

Saturday, April 30, Nancy Hutchins and Kay Meyer went to Columbia, Missouri to be special judges for Missouri History Day. AAUW of Missouri gives cash prizes for any Senior, Junior and Documentary women's history submissions. Betty Takahashi has organized the Missouri History Day judges for over five years. This year two Junior submissions received the AAUW prizes for their portrayal of Rachel Carson and Laura Ingalls Wilder.

2016 STEM Awardees

Ellen Von Zur Muehlen from Maplewood-Richmond Heights High School plans to study environmental science and biology. Graduating with a 4.1 GPS, Ellen has done a garden internship at her high school and has worked at the Schlafly Farmers Market. She is a member of the National Honor Society and a cross-country runner.

April Votrain from Affton High School plans to study civil engineering at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. Graduating with a 4.1 GPA, April has completed several engineering projects through Project Lead the Way, is a member of the National Honor Society, and volunteers through tutoring and community ministry.

STEM Award Update

Our STEM Awards to high school girls were established in commemoration of our branch's 40th anniversary. The goal was to encourage girls to continue in STEM fields through college. Of our past six honorees, we might ask, "Where are they now? Have our gifts helped?" An unofficial survey via Facebook reveals that most of the girls are still studying in STEM fields. Here is a list of their names, universities, fields of study, and current status.

2013: Demi Lewis, Howard University, pre-med. Evidently still attending. Works at The Magic House.

2013: Paige Krejci, Missouri S&T, mechanical engineering. Mechanical engineering co-op at Watlow Electric Manufacturing Company and engineer at Kingsford Charcoal. Was a candidate for Queen of Love and Beauty at Missouri S&T.

2014: Monica Smith, Brigham Young University, engineering. Doing her LDS missionary service.

2014: Emily Willis, Michigan State University, biomedical engineering. Studying in Ireland spring semester. Member of Phi Sigma Rho, sorority for women in engineering.

2015: AnnaMarie Pyne, University of Kansas, mechanical engineering. Studying mechanical engineering at KU.

2015: Autumn Martin, Pomona College, neurology. Studying neuroscience at Pomona. Works in admissions office and at Office Depot.

Historical Note

In 1916, over 3000 suffragists converged on Saint Louis, Missouri in the sweltering heat during the Democratic convention poised to re-nominate Woodrow Wilson as President. Their sole demand was a plank in the party platform in support of women's suffrage. Wearing white dresses and golden sashes that said "Votes For Women", they lined the street where the delegates would walk from their hotel to the convention center.

The impact of these women, who formed a 'walkless, talkless parade', sometimes called "The Golden Lane" was enormous. They accomplished their objective and got the plank on the platform.
