

"AAUW advances gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy."

AAUW is open to graduates who hold the associate, baccalaureate, or higher degree from a qualified college or university.

The Kirkwood-Webster Groves Branch of AAUW supports the full range of the AAUW mission through its monthly program meetings, special interest groups, and public outreach events, by engaging in social action, collaborating with local organizations and educational institutions regarding AAUW topics, and supporting area young women and girls directly. We are one of five branches in the St. Louis, MO, area that comprise the AAUW Metro St Louis Interbranch Council (IBC).

6:45 - networking

7:00 - meeting

Link to the Zoom room: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/3041753234>

Our February 17 meeting will focus on DEI: Diversity, Equity, Inclusion. Kay Meyer will lead the discussion by providing background and vocabulary.

Then, we will use a self-evaluation form to audit our branch. Finally, our discussion will explore why we think DEI is important and things we can do to promote it and possibly convince others. Join us for an in-depth discussion about a significant topic.

You are invited to log in early at 6:45 pm for networking, and the meeting will officially begin at 7:00. If you come early, we will be informally sharing our thoughts on the most influential African American women, currently or in the past. To get the conversation started, I assert that the "Hidden Figures" women were the most influential. Come hear my reasons on February 17!

As in other professions, women are under-represented and undervalued in the art world. Only a third of artists represented by commercial galleries are women, and women working in arts professions are paid on average 74 cents to every dollar paid to men. This is what motivates AAUW to host an annual art contest—to give women artists the attention they deserve.

Entries for the 2022 art contest were open from January 5 to January 31. Voting will be open from February 2 to February 16. The six winning entries will be featured in a collection of notecards mailed to AAUW members in the spring! St. Louis area AAUW members have submitted artwork, so be sure to look for them.

“Swing Into Spring” March 26, 2022 IBC Luncheon!

The IBC planning committee is really looking forward to seeing you at the in-person IBC Spring Luncheon at Catering To You in Florissant (map) on Saturday, March 26, starting at 11:30 am. Registration is now open for this elegant, sit-down, hot buffet luncheon where we will celebrate our five Barbara Lackritz Honorees and be entertained by The Queens of Swing. A registration flyer is at the end of this newsletter and on the IBC Website. Show your support for our Barbara Lackritz Honorees!

Joyce Katz, Ballwin-Chesterfield
Carolyn Herkstroetter, Ferguson-Florissant
Jeanne Webdell, Kirkwood-Webster Groves
Pam Kulp, St. Charles
Sue Barley, St. Louis

Enjoy the Entertainment . . . The Queens of Swing, reminiscent of female swing bands of the 1940s, are dedicated to restoring the forgotten history of these bands. Over a hundred of these bands responded to the skyrocketing American demand for swing during World War II. With many young men in military service, female musicians took up the slack and provided live music during the stressful years of World War II. In so doing, they provided diversion, comfort, and social contact through music and dance. As they performed, the bands engaged in quiet social revolution and taught people how to be together.

AAUW thanks The Queens of Swing for continuing to provide great music as they fight to keep alive the artistic contributions of female bands to American history.

Contribute to IBC and NCCWSL . . . Fundraising this year will generate funds in several ways:

- ⇒ If you can't attend but want to donate, please feel free to send in your registration form with a direct donation. All amounts are appreciated!!
- ⇒ At the event itself we will have a Gift Card raffle. These will reflect themes chosen by the branches, with six chances total to win gift cards to interesting, fun, or tasty places.
- ⇒ We will have a 50-50 raffle – always a crowd pleaser!
- ⇒ New this year, you will be able to purchase a “piece of the NCCWSL” scholarship funding puzzle by choosing to donate an amount that covers specific expenses such as money for one meal or the cost of air fare. You can help complete the puzzle!

Enjoy the Open Hot Buffet . . . A hot buffet luncheon will be served with Roasted Top Round of Beef Au Jus, Mushroom Herb Chicken Breast, Scalloped Potatoes, Homestyle Green Beans, Garden Salad, Rolls, drinks, and dessert.

Plan to arrive by 11:30 am to check out the many donation opportunities before luncheon is served at noon. About 12:45 we will begin presentation of our Barbara Lackritz Honorees followed by the marvelous music of The Queens of Swing. The luncheon will wrap up about 2:30 following raffle drawings, announcements, and pictures.

AAUW Mission: To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

AAUW Vision: Equity for all.

AAUW Values: Nonpartisan. Fact-based. Integrity. Inclusion and intersectionality.

The AAUW MO Star Award

Every year AAUW of Missouri recognizes branches who align their work with the AAUW national and state strategic plans and initiatives that foster AAUW's mission. All successes (large and small, few and many) are important for achieving AAUW's mission. There are 10 focus areas, and a star is awarded for meeting the requirements of each area. Based on our branch activities from April 1 through March 31, Kirkwood-Webster has consistently earned 10 stars. You can see the Star Award application, stored on the AAUW MO website, by clicking here.

This year the state developed an Action Plan to guide branches in planning programs and activities; our board spent hours reviewing the plan and adopted it as our Action Plan. Our main goals in the four areas of action are:

- ◆ Education and Training - Champion equal-access education, emphasizing STEM, and ensure education at every level is free from sex discrimination.
- ◆ Economic Security - Shrink the gender pay gap and bolster inclusive career pathways for women in skills and training.
- ◆ Leadership - Expand the number of women in leadership, particularly in STEM.
- ◆ Governance & Sustainability - Continually improve and practice governance that emphasizes inclusion. Work to enhance our financial sustainability by increasing and diversifying revenue.

Each goal in the Action Plan offers detailed suggestions for addressing these challenges as well as meeting the requirements of the AAUW MO Star Award; we have already completed some of the tasks required in each category. AAUW has a similar award program, the Five-Star National Recognition Program; learn more about it here. The board is considering applying for this award. If you are interested in helping with this project, please contact Jeanne Webdell or Marsha Koch.

Debbie McWard

Membership Chair

Welcome two more members to our branch.

CHARLOTTE PARSONS

If you have been involved with AAUW for a while, you've probably heard Charlotte's name. She has done about everything in AAUW before moving here from Jefferson City, where she has been branch president for close to 20 years. When I asked her for a list of accomplishments, she came up with entrepreneur and small business owner; piano and voice teacher; licensed health insurer and independent contractor, assistant to elderly with Medicare issues; kindergarten teacher; GED teacher in the Missouri Department of Corrections at Church Farms and Tip-ton.

She has many stories to tell about her work at the prisons. A conclusion she came to was that a high proportion of learning disabilities exist in the prison population, no doubt because they had already experienced difficulties with traditional learning. No doubt we could spend a whole program listening to her. Her husband put it best: "Your stories from there are different from your kindergarten stories."

Charlotte holds a B.A. in Elementary Education from the University of Iowa as well as a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from the University of Nebraska at Omaha. She has been a proud member of AAUW for close to 50 years.

Among the achievements she lists is being married to the same man for 52 years. We had the opportunity to meet Richard L. Parsons at the History Museum in December. They moved back to St. Louis to be closer to family. They have two grown daughters, a beautiful grandson, and a twin niece and nephew.

Charlotte attended our Anniversary Celebration in October and became a dual member on the spot.

JULIE MOYER

What an interesting biography Julie sent for her introduction to the branch. I hope we can keep up with her. It would be pointless to change what she wrote.

"I grew up in Webster Groves and went to Loyola University in Chicago for my undergraduate degree in nursing. I had a lot of different interests in nursing and ended up working in public health and pediatric hospitals, and ultimately decided to pursue more education in public health. My interests were more global than local health though, so I took a big leap and attended the University of Sydney's Masters of International Public Health program. However, I was not done with Australia when my master's program was complete! I continued working in Melbourne for a couple of years and was in Australia for about four and a half years total before moving back to St. Louis. I worked in public health and clinical research locally before ending up at the Human Research Protection Office at Washington University, where I am currently employed.

I am an educator for investigators and research teams conducting human subjects research at WU. It is endlessly interesting and gratifying.

I am an aunt to four nephews, ages 9, 8, 5 and 5. My partner Dave has two kids in the WGSD, although my heart truly belongs to my 12-ish year old beagle named Darrell (who does not have another brother Darrell). My favorite show ever is The Mary Tyler Moore Show, which I only watched for the first time in 2021. I love reading books with women protagonists, eating spicy foods, and figuring out how to make the world a better place with the privilege I have been afforded."

GREENWOOD CEMETERY - PART OF THE VOTES FOR WOMEN TRAIL PROJECT

The Votes for Women Trail project is underway with 31 sites already in Missouri. It is eye opening to review some of the efforts women made over 100 years ago to obtain the right to vote for women and to work for equity for all people. Among the registered sites is Greenwood Cemetery located at 6571 St. Louis Avenue, Hillsdale, MO 63121. Buried there are three African American suffragists: Mary Alice Ford Pitts, Maria L. Harrison, and Arsania Williams. Pat Shores, the coordinator of the Trail Project for AAUW MO, submitted this information about Mary Alice Ford Pitts to the history site project:

"...women should remain undaunted in the midst of calamity and stand shoulder to shoulder, singly and together."

Mary Alice Ford Pitts

African American Suffragist Mary Alice Ford Pitts played a leading role in many St. Louis community organizations. She was an educator, a temperance worker, a club organizer, and a woman before her time. She was president of the St. Louis Colored Orphans' Home and the Harper Women's Christian Temperance Union that worked tirelessly to raise the funds to provide a safe place for orphaned black children at 1427 N. 12th Street. She helped to start the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA for women and girls of color and was a founding member of the Missouri Colored Women's Club in 1900.

Mary Alice Ford Pitts attended the National Association of Colored Women gathering in Boston as a delegate of the Women's Club, the Harper Women's Christian Temperance Union and the citizens of St. Louis. As one of the speakers at the first convention of the National Federation of Afro-American Women in Washington D.C., she said, "...we entertain every difference of opinion and belief, we are suffragists and anti-suffragist, temperance and anti-temperance...women should remain undaunted in the midst of calamity and stand shoulder to shoulder, singly and together."

Certainly the life of Mary Alice Ford Pitts speaks to us today. If you are interested in the project, contact: Jeanne Webdell (jeannewebdell@gmail.com or 573.754.0943).

Greenwood Cemetery, which is 31.85 acres, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. It is the final resting place for over 50,000 African-Americans. Herman Krueger established Greenwood Cemetery in 1874 after resigning his position as superintendent of St. Peter's Cemetery on Lucas and Hunt Road. He was able to envision the need - and potential profitability - of a private black cemetery. Greenwood was the first commercial burial ground for area African Americans.

In August of 2020, a special service was held at Greenwood Cemetery commemorating the actions of Mary Alice Ford Pitts, Maria L. Harrison, and Arsania Williams. (Other suffragists may be buried at Greenwood as well.)

Speakers included AAUW MO's president-elect Karen B. Francis, who coordinated the event. Also speaking were Shelley Morris, Greenwood treasurer, and Etta Daniels, Greenwood historian.

Approximately 25 people representing AAUW, Women’s Voices for Social Justice, League of Women Voters St. Louis, St. Louis Protection Coalition, National Women’s Political Caucus St. Louis, and local elected officials attended the remembrance “Honoring Black Suffragists.” Marsha Koch and Jeanne Webdell attended from our branch.

For more information go to the Greenwood website at www.greenwoodstl.org.

AAUW METRO ST LOUIS INTERBRANCH COUNCIL (IBC)

The AAUW St. Louis Metro Interbranch Council (IBC) consists of representatives from each of the St. Louis AAUW branches. The following officers from each branch are voting members of IBC: president, program vice president, membership vice president, and a member at large. All members are invited to attend meetings (quarterly, fourth Tuesday of August, November, February, and May) and participate in IBC activities, which include:

Climate Change

Speaker:
Carl Bender, PhD

Carl M. Bender is the Konneker Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Physics at Washington University in St. Louis.

Find out the science behind the climate change from Professor Bender. By far, the most serious problem that the (continued on page 6) earth's population faces is that of climate change. Scientists have been well aware of this problem for more than a century; but in recent years, there have been major advances in measurement and prediction. The latest comprehensive studies are contained in the Sixth Assessment Report of the U.N. Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) published in August 2021. This talk will summarize some of the recent findings and predictions.

IBC Branch Events:

In case you would like to visit another branch, here are some of their events. For information, check their website or contact a KWG officer who will have contact info.

BALLWIN-CHESTERFIELD BRANCH:

On February 10 at 11 am, the branch's monthly program will feature Valerie Battle Kienzle speaking on "Lost St. Louis: Lost Landmarks of the Gateway to the West." Many iconic landmarks have come and gone in the last 250 years. What was torn down when the Gateway Arch was built? Or what happened to the Lion Gas Building? Or the Chinese community under Busch Stadium? She will detail some of the fantastic forgotten and lost places from our past. The meeting will be in person at Trinity Lutheran Church, 14088 Clayton Road at Hwy 141, 63017

FERGUSON-FLORISSANT BRANCH:

Their January meeting was a discussion of how the Electoral College was started, how it affected elections, and the difference between plurality and majority results

Beyond Bathrooms: The Painful Story of Transgender Discrimination

Thursday, February 10, 7 p.m.

Virtual Program

Registration is required; please register here!

Christopher Lewis, MD, is co-director of Pediatric Transgender Health, director of Differences of Sex Development Clinic, and assistant professor of pediatric endocrinology in the Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis.

Samati Nioymchai is an HIV/AIDS case manager at Washington University. He is a licensed master social worker with more than four years' experience in case management, working with low-income populations in both emergency medicine and clinic settings, and providing intervention services for individuals experiencing domestic violence. In 2014 he was a contributor to the groundbreaking anthology Recognize: The Voices of Bisexual Men.

Rabbi Daniel Bogard is a co-rabbi at Central Reform Congregation--a position he shares with his spouse, Karen. A lifelong social justice advocate, he is involved in numerous causes, including advocating for undocumented persons in St. Louis and working to make the minimum wage a living wage in Missouri. He will share his personal story of advocating before the Missouri legislature on behalf of one of the couple's three young children who is transgender.

February Lunch & Learn: The Current State of Immigration

When: Thursday, February 17 | 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

Where: Zoom - RSVP Here

Immigration has been a touchstone of the U.S. political debate for decades, as policymakers have weighed economic, security, and humanitarian concerns. Congress has been unable to reach an agreement on comprehensive immigration reform for years, and in the meantime, people are suffering. NCJWSL has always been at the forefront of immigration rights advocacy, but we must always strive to do more.

International Women's Day

IWD happens every March 8. It is a global moment to mark and celebrate the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements or rally for women's equality.

IWD 2022 campaign theme: #BreakTheBias

- * Imagine a gender equal world.
- * A world free of bias, stereotypes, and discrimination.
- * A world that is diverse, equitable, and inclusive.
- * A world where difference is valued and celebrated.
- * Together we can forge women's equality.
- * Collectively we can all #BreakTheBias.

By Pat Shores

AAUW MO Lobbyist

AAUW Missouri is shifting the focus of the equal pay advocates from communicating with Missouri state legislators to meeting with local city officials about the gender pay gap.

The Equal Pay Advocates are making the change because most members of the Missouri Senate and House of Representatives have not been receptive to discussing the gender pay gap nor bringing bills to the floor. Five bills were filed last year; some were assigned to a committee, but none had a hearing. As the registered AAUW of MO lobbyist, I will continue to monitor the equal pay bills in the next session.

AAUW members established a personal relationship with local officials in 2020–2021 when we asked them to support proclamations for the 100th anniversary of women getting the vote. We want to build on that relationship with Equal Pay Advocate meetings. Information in support of equal pay for equal work for the women who work in their cities will be shared. We will also help them see that AAUW is a trusted source of information about the gender pay gap.

2022 Virtual Missouri Women's Network Legislative Retreat

Saturday, February 19, 9-11 am

The Missouri Women's Network (MWN) is a coalition of groups and individuals working for equity for women. The mission of MWN is based on principles articulated in the National Plan of Action adopted by the Women's Conference Committee in Houston in 1977. MWN was formed in 1983 in the aftermath of the defeat of the ERA to consider alternatives for keeping the quest for women's equality alive.

You will receive the Zoom invitation from AAUW Missouri President Sue Shineman about five days prior to the event.

As you may recall, the AAUW Board of Directors voted in October to increase the individual member dues for the next three years. Starting in March, the amounts will be $67 national ($64 tax deductible), $10 for AAUW MO, and $15 for Kirkwood-Webster Groves. Dues for 2022–23 will total $92.

Consider Lifetime Membership!

This is a great time for current members to upgrade to lifetime membership for $1,240, a $100 savings compared to the cost after June 30. Lifetime membership is fully tax-deductible and allows you to put your values into action for many years to come!

AAUW Election: Learn the Issues and Vote

As AAUW members, you have the right to comment on any proposed changes to AAUW bylaws before they are put up for a member vote this spring. Although the comment period closed at 5 p.m. ET on February 2, 2022, you may still look at the proposed changes. Then weigh in this spring to elect members to the national board of directors and vote on amendments to bylaws.

Sex Discrimination Today Takes a Variety of Forms

Unfair pay, pregnancy discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, and violations of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 can affect both women and men.

AAUW's Legal Advocacy Fund addresses these barriers by informing people of their rights and using the legal system to seek justice and change. LAF was created in 1981 by AAUW members and has provided millions of dollars to balance the scales of justice for people working toward gender equity through the legal system. We support brave plaintiffs seeking legal redress for equal pay, Title IX, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and tenure denial violations. We allocate $100,000 annually to help fund landmark cases, such as Wal-Mart v. Dukes and Cioca v. Rumsfeld, as well as cases with the potential to set future precedents like Rizo v. Fresno County Office of Education.

National Equal Pay Day

Everyone knows that it's the 21st century! Isn't it time that modern humans finally set this women-aren't-paid-equally nonsense behind them and just give equal pay for equal work? That's what National Equal Pay Day is all about.

Throughout the last century, there has been an ongoing and active fight to solve a problem that has existed far longer than that. Ever since history and work began, women have been paid lower wages for doing the exact same job. And the gap gets even wider when women of color are considered in comparison to white men.

National Equal Pay Day encourages people to get out there and fight for true employment equality for everyone, no matter their gender or the color of their skin! Isn't it time people were paid what they are worth?

The next Equal Pay Day is Tuesday, March 15, 2022. This date symbolizes how far into the year women must work to earn what men earned in the previous year.

Help raise awareness about pay equity. One of the best ways to observe this day is by opening up conversations about the problems within this arena. Whether at work, in the neighborhood, or in an academic environment, it is important that men and women alike become more educated about this severe problem in society.

Year-End Matching Gift Thank You

Thank you for your many special gifts to AAUW's 140th anniversary and the historic year-end matching gift of $75,000, which was made possible by our board, volunteers, and staff. While we are still tabulating the numbers, we are proud to share that we greatly exceeded this record-breaking match. We could not be more grateful for your support.
