Kirkwood-Webster Groves and St. Louis Combined January Online (Zoom) Meeting

Missouri lawmakers set a new record for pre-filed bills. Our speaker for the January 15th Zoom meeting will be Mo. State District 90 Representative Mark Boyko who will update us on pending legislation for 2026. Among the 10 bills Rep. Boyko himself has pre-filed are two proposals: one for charter school regulations and another to lower the compulsory education age from 7 to 5. Please mark your calendar for our session; “doors open” at 6:30 pm for networking.

Rep. Boyko, who represents part of St. Louis County (which includes parts of Kirkwood, Glendale, Des Peres, St. Louis County, and Valley Park) was elected to his first two-year term in November 2024.

Rep. Boyko earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, his Juris Doctorate from the University of Missouri School of Law, and his LL.M. from New York University School of Law. He has been practicing law for the past twenty years, with the majority of his career spent practicing as an ERISA litigator (Employee Retirement Income Security Act). In the house he serves on the primary and secondary education committee, utilities committee, and government efficiency committee among others.

Beyond his legal career, Rep. Boyko has been involved in his community. He has served on the Kirkwood School Board and the St. Louis area non-profit Places for People and is currently a director for both the St. Louis Area Diaper Bank and Friends of the Kathy J. Weinman Center, where he supports vital services for local women and families in need.

What questions do you have for Rep. Boyko? See next page for important links.

Hello From Your Membership Veep, Deb McWard

First of all, warm wishes for a happy and healthy new year. At the same time, I extend similar wishes from our branch. These we have some control over by your continued interest and support of our programming. National has done some reorganizing, and branch officers have had to do some adjusting. At times, it has been challenging; but we stay faithful to our mission, and I hope you still feel some passion that brought you into the organization. We remain an important voice for women.

It is my wish that those of you who take advantage of our programs continue to do so; and those who don't, please consider attending. We'll work out carpools or help with the Zoomed meetings. The board even encourages any of you to attend its meetings held the first Monday of each month by Zoom at 7 p.m. We get lots done, even if we tend to get a little loose with Roberts Rules of Order, plus sometimes we even get a little silly. More importantly, you could give us some thoughts on what you'd like to see done. In other words, the meetings are not intimidating.

The very best thing you can do is to bring a friend along to some of our gatherings. The officers are listed on the front of the newsletter. Contact them for any information.

Nancy

He loved to cook, and Nancy says he made the best fried egg sandwiches. She loved them and him. His Celebration of Life will be at 2 P.M. , April 4th, at the Eliot U. Chapel.

We hope all of you have a joyous and healthy January. Stay warm.

Pecan Sales Fundraiser

A decades-long branch fundraiser has been sales of pecans from Schermer Pecans out of Georgia. Check with Kay Meyer if you need more. Here's a recipe you might like, Pecan Pimento Cheese.

1 pound sharp cheddar cheese, shredded
1 (8oz) package cream cheese, at room temperature
½ cup mayonnaise, or to taste
1- 1 ½ teaspoons Tabasco
1 (7oz) jar diced pimentos, undrained
1 cup chopped pecans

Combine the cheddar and cream cheese in a food processor, pulsing to mix. Mix in the mayonnaise and Tabasco. Scrape into a mixing bowl and stir in the pimentos, their juice and the pecans. Refrigerate until ready to serve. Serve with crackers.

Upcoming selections:

Jan 22 All the Colors of Dark, by Chris Whitaker, 608 pages, June 2024, Kay Meyer, facilitator.

1975 is a time of change in America. The Vietnam War is ending. Muhammad Ali is fighting Joe Frazier. And in the small town of Monta Clare, Missouri, girls are disappearing. When the daughter of a wealthy family is targeted, the most unlikely hero emerges—Patch, a local boy, who saves the girl, and, in doing so, leaves heartache in his wake. Patch and those who love him soon discover that the line between triumph and tragedy has never been finer. And that their search for answers will lead them to truths that could mean losing one another.

Feb 26 Heartland: A Memoir of Working Hard and Being Broke in the Richest Country on Earth, by Sarah Smarsh, 304 pages, 9-18-2018. Lynne Roney, facilitator.

Sarah Smarsh was born a fifth generation Kansas wheat farmer on her paternal side, and the product of generations of teen mothers on her maternal side. Through her experiences growing up on a farm thirty miles west of Wichita, we are given a unique and essential look into the lives of poor and working-class Americans living in the heartland. During Sarah's turbulent childhood in Kansas in the 1980s and 1990s, she enjoyed the freedom of a country childhood but observed the painful challenges of the poverty around her; untreated medical conditions for lack of insurance or consistent care, unsafe job conditions, abusive relationships, and limited resources and information that would provide for the upward mobility that is the American Dream. By telling the story of her life and the lives of the people she loves with clarity and precision but without judgement, Smarsh challenges us to look more closely at the class divide in our country. Beautifully written, in a distinctive voice, Heartland combines personal narrative with powerful analysis and cultural commentary, challenging the myths about people thought to be less because they earn less.

Mar 26 Sula, by Toni Morrison, 192 pages, 1973. Nancy Hutchins, facilitator.

Sula and Nel are two young black girls: clever and poor. They grow up together sharing their secrets, dreams and happiness. Then Sula breaks free from their small-town community in the uplands of Ohio to roam the cities of America. When she returns ten years later much has changed. Including Nel, who now has a husband and three children. The friendship between the two women becomes strained and the whole town grows wary as Sula continues in her wayward, vagabond and uncompromising ways.

Apr 26 My Friends, by Fredrik Backman, 448 pages, 2025. Jayne Kasten, facilitator.

Most people don't even notice them—three tiny figures sitting at the end of a long pier in the corner of one of the most famous paintings in the world. Most people think it's just a depiction of the sea. But Louisa, an aspiring artist herself, knows otherwise, and she is determined to find out the story of these three enigmatic figures. ... Louisa is proof that happy endings don't always take the form we expect in this stunning testament to the transformative, timeless power of friendship and art.

The speaker for January 13, 2026, will be Steven Lawrence, MD, MSc Epidemiology, Washington University School of Medicine: Vaccines to Prevent the Next Pandemic: Is There a Will to Find the Way?

Dr. Lawrence earned his MD degree from Washington University School of Medicine in 1997 prior to completing internal medicine residency at Barnes-Jewish Hospital in 2000 and infectious diseases (ID) fellowship training at WashU Med in 2004. He subsequently earned his MSc degree in Epidemiology from the London School of Tropical Medicine and joined the full-time faculty of the ID division in 2005, where he is a professor of medicine. He has been actively engaged with preparedness, education and response to ID threats including the 2001 anthrax letter attacks, 2009 H1N1 influenza pandemic, 2014 Ebola outbreak and COVID-19, for which he has served on numerous WashU and public health agency task forces.

Dr. Lawrence is assistant dean for curriculum within the Office of Medical Student Education where he oversees several components of the new medical student Gateway Curriculum. He conducted published research studies on influenza and other respiratory viral illnesses, vaccines against viral illnesses, and infections in transplant patients. He sees patients and supervises trainees in the WashU ID outpatient clinic and on the transplant ID consult service in Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

International Relations Lecture Series

If you are interested in international relations and learning about worldwide issues, you will enjoy these lectures held at 10:45 a.m. on the second Tuesday of January, February, March, and April each year at the Ethical Society building on Clayton Rd in Ladue. AAUW and the Tuesday Women's Association have sponsored these lectures for over 90 years, and they are always interesting.

The Ethical Society supplies the facilities and equipment at no cost for the lectures. Speakers are paid $250 from the funds raised by our donations and by passing the basket at the lectures.

AAUW December Updates

- NCCWSL: NASPA has recently shared updates, and they are posted on their website here: <https://www.naspa.org/events/nccwsl> The event will be held May 27-30, 2026, at the University of Maryland College Park. - Branch and State Website Maintenance: Please be advised that the branch websites will be undergoing scheduled maintenance. TENTATIVELY, this will begin on Friday, January 9th at 5:00 PM (EST). The maintenance window is expected to conclude on Monday, January 12th at 9:00 AM (EST). During this time, branch and state websites hosted on aauw.net may be unavailable. More information will be shared once the timeline has been confirmed.
- Annual Branch Survey: Approximately 155 branches did not complete the 2025 branch survey. Tremayne Parquet has been seeking feedback from those branches, state leaders, and the Advancement committee to make improvements for the coming year that will enable more branches to respond. We need to increase and reinforce getting these responses. The changes made last year increased the response rate, but there is more that can be done by understanding barriers to completion. The deadline for submitting the follow-up questionnaire for these non-responding branches is Feb. 28, 2026.

- * Support Needed: Tremayne Parquet emailed all State Presidents a list of Branches that did not complete the survey in their state on September 26th. He also included a link to the short 5 question questionnaire to learn more about their barriers to completion. The link to the questionnaire is here: FY25 AAUW Annual Branch Survey Feedback He sent an additional two reminders – but we still have low participation. Please reach out to the branches in your state that DID NOT fill out the survey for 2025. If you need to receive that list again, please email Tremayne at parquett@aauw.org
- Feedback from Unresponsive Branches: So far, we have only 19 responses from this group, so conclusions now are preliminary. That said, there are four reasons that more than one respondent gave:
 - * Communication about the survey: 5 of the 19 respondents said they missed survey notifications or said they did not receive anything;
 - * Purpose of the survey: 4 of the 19 said they were uncertain as to why the survey matters to branches. We need to strengthen the messaging around the value of completing the survey and the value the national office brings to branches;
 - * Branch capacity: 2 of the 19 said they do not have someone who can complete the survey, suggesting that their branch status is uncertain and/or that they too few members;
 - * Survey completion support: 3 of the 19 needed extra support to complete the survey: 3 said they had a timing conflict—they didn't have the time to complete the survey by the deadline; others needed help with the online form or needed an alternative method (paper form or phone call) for completing it.

So far, there has not been resistance to the idea of the survey; it is mostly that more support and communication are needed. As leaders change, we need to continue to communicate well about this. Through the end of February, follow up with those who have not responded yet to this questionnaire as needed.

News from the Inclusion and Equity Committee

Karen Francis and Trish Garner, co-chairs

The Committee has focused this cycle on strengthening members' comfort, confidence, and skill in engaging in inclusion and equity conversations during a time of heightened polarization. Our goal is to support members in practicing courageous listening and taking meaningful, practical steps toward more genuine inclusion across AAUW and the communities where we live and lead.

Recent Committee Activities

- Reaffirming AAUW Values through Conversation – In State Diversity Chair meetings, we have centered our discussions on “The Courage to Listen, The Willingness to Act: Moving Inclusion Forward,” highlighting AAUW’s ongoing commitment to fairness, equity, and justice—while acknowledging both successes and missteps in past DEI efforts.
- Shifting from “Talking To” to “Talking With” – We introduced and practiced simple, accessible discussion frameworks and exercises designed to help branches and states move from presentation-style conversations to more reciprocal, member-centered engagement.
- Member Engagement Over Webinar Production – Rather than rushing into webinar development, we have intentionally invested in building capacity and trust through direct dialogue with State Diversity Chairs, modeling the inclusive practices we hope to amplify across the organization.

Plans for the Coming Months

- Showcasing Branch and State Initiatives – State Diversity Chairs will share how they have implemented inclusion and equity conversations locally; we hope these examples will form the foundation of our next national webinar.
- Addressing Challenging Information Environments – Because “facts” increasingly depend on differing media ecosystems, the Committee will develop guidance for engaging with diverse news and information sources as part of healthy inclusion practices.
- Clarifying Key Concepts – We plan to help members explore complex topics such as engaging with diverse news and information sources and topics such as “equity” vs. “equality” through practical frameworks that keep discussion grounded, respectful, and accessible.
